President's Message

Good day ladies!

This year's Intercity was one memorable event. Kudos to the RC of Cabuyao for hosting the event.

It was fun filled and has lots of team building activities that strengthen the intercivity theme -> "SOLIDarity : Area 1, We are ONE".

These team building activities, exercises and ideas will definitely help the club in building teamwork, member motivation, and personal development.

I thank all those members who took part in the activity.

Yours in rotary service,

First Class President Teodora "Doray" Lucero

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL

Updates

The first four Rotarians

On 23 February 1905, Paul P. Harris, Gustavus Loehr, Silvester Schiele, and Hiram E. Shorey gathered in Loehr's office for what would become known as the first Rotary club meeting. Harris's desire for camaraderie among business associates brought together these four men and eventually led to an international organization of service and fellowship.

Reflections

“Rotary brings men [and now women too] differing in social status, religious beliefs and nationality together in order that they may more intelligible to each other and therefore more sympathetic and friendly.”

(Paul, Harris This Rotarian Age, page 87)

“Quick and complete employment is both a sword and a shield. That’s why every possible line of industrial and agricultural activity should ring with new life. This is Rotary’s opportunity.” — President’s Annual Message, THE ROTARIAN, August 1919

LET US INTRODUCE YOU TO OUR ROTARY.

ROTARY BASICS

Rotary Themes through the Years

Each January, as Rotary district governors-elect convene at the International Assembly for training and fellowship, they can be certain of two things: a lot of take-home reading and the announcement of a new RI theme.

The tradition of crafting a theme is credited to 1949-50 RI President Percy C. Hodgson, who outlined a list of four objectives for his term in office. Among them were the better application of the principles of vocational service and dedication to world understanding and peace through international service programs.

Though Hodgson's 83-word proclamation ran substantially longer than today's shorter, punchier themes, Rotarians' desire to celebrate and support their president's annual program of service has remained the same. Other early themes include Rotary Is Hope in Action (Joaquin Serratosa Cibils, 1953-54), Kindle the Spark Within (Nitish C. Laharry, 1962-63), and Good Will Begin with You (Ernst G. Breitholtz, 1971-72).

In the decades that followed, RI presidents introduced theme logos, lapel pins, ties, and scarves. Theme ties were introduced in the 1990s, and are now given out yearly. Many have incorporated the theme for the year. The first scarves showing the RI theme were designed by 1998-99 RI President James L. Lacy and his wife, Claudine, Follow Your Rotary Dream.

Minutes of the Meeting

3. The Board voted on how many times the Club may re-admit members. It was decided that a member may be re-admitted up to a maximum of two (2) times, to wit:

- New member - Admit
- Re-apply - Re-admit #1
- Re-apply - Re-admit #2 (last)
- Member can no longer be re-admitted.

4. The Board discussed about allowing members with the same classification. Gov. Chit cited the new MOP that states that there are no longer any limitations in accepting members with the same classification. The Board unanimously voted that the Club shall maintain the same rule, subject to the rules of acceptance of the Club.

5. The Board voted on whether the Club shall retain the Unanimous Vote rule in accepting new members, i.e. even if only one (1) member disagrees to accept a potential member, the Club shall not accept that applicant into the Club.

- a. A majority vote of 9 members vs. 3 was in favour of retaining the Unanimous Vote rule.
- b. A concern was raised on the validity of the reason behind a "no" vote of a member in accepting a new member. The reason given may be deemed shallow, thus unreasonably deterring the Club from gaining new members.
- c. For this purpose, a member who gives a "no" vote to a potential member shall give a valid reason. If the reason given is deemed to be invalid, the Board shall discuss the matter and may or may not overrule the "no" vote.
- d. Another concern was raised regarding the ability of all members to vote for or against an applicant, considering the not all members attend each regular meetings.
- e. For this purpose, the Board agreed to observe the following procedures for membership approval:

Minutes of the Meeting

- i. Sponsor shall give a background of the applicant to Membership Committee. This will be presented and discussed during a regular meeting, and thus written in the Minutes.
  - ii. Votation shall be set on the next Regular Meeting. Text and/or email reminders shall be sent by the Secretary to remind members that there will be a Votation for the acceptance of new member.
  - iii. In case a member is not available to attend the next Regular Meeting, she may text/email or call the Secretary to give her vote in advance. If the vote is "No", she shall state her reason for the "No" vote.
  - iv. Members who do not attend the next Regular Meeting and do not signify any advanced vote thereby agrees to waive their right to vote for or against the applicant.
  - v. A quorum of 1/3 of the total members shall be required for the Club to proceed with the votation for accepting new members.
  - vi. In any and all cases of dispute on the decision of the Club in accepting applicants, the Board shall make the decision, which shall be final.
6. The Board voted on whether the Club shall set the maximum number of members at 30 persons.
- a. The Club voted unanimously "No", meaning the Club shall not set the maximum number of members at 30 persons.
7. Given the above resolutions, the Board decided that the Club shall revise its By-Laws, to be undertaken by Exec. Secretary Myrna.
8. The Board discussed about the case of our two members who have not maintained good standing (non-payment of dues and non-attendance of meetings/activities): Rtn. Joen Delfino and Rtn. Itchel Maglian. Secretary Precy reported that she asked rtn. Joen about her arrears and the response was that "iisipin ko". Rtn. Itchel did not give any response (per Pres. Doray who followed up).
- a. The Board decided that enough time has been given to Rtn. Joen and Rtn. Itchel and that the Club should already decide on wether to Retain or Oust them

Minutes of the Meeting

- b. The Board unanimously voted that Rtn. Joen Delfino and Rtn. Itchel Maglian will no longer be reported in our next SAR, thus the two aforementioned members are now considered ousted and are no longer members of the Club.
- c. It was further noted that Rtn. Joen has already been re-admitted by the Club twice, therefore she will no longer be qualified for re-admittance to the Club.

9. Other Matters

- a. The Board discussed the possibility of reviving the "Council of Presidents" composed of past presidents plus the incumbent. Said Council shall be patterned after the District Council of Governors wherein a chairman is elected, who will organize the council's activities. The function of the Council of Presidents shall primarily be for fellowship and as an advisory body to issues that may be forwarded by the Club.
- b. The date of our Buntis Wellness 4 has been changed to March 8. This is already final.
  - i. PP mean will donate medicines for the pregnant participants when they give birth (650 pesos each x maximum of 100 = 65,000 pesos).
  - ii. Gov. Chit requested Pres. Doray to give her a list of the needed medicines.
  - iii. We will only provide food for the doctors/nurses and club members. Pres. Doray said we need to give food for those who will undergo ligation.
  - iv. Committee for Buntis Wellness 4:
    - Chairman: PP Zeny
    - Asst. Chairman: PP Jackie

10. With no other matters to discuss, the meetings was adjourned at 4:00 p.m.

--nothing follows--

The Naked Truth: 7 Lies ALL Women Tell Their Husbands

Most of us consider ourselves to be pretty honest people. We always tell the truth, unless, of course, there is a legitimate reason not to. Our spouses may not know, but when we lie, it really is for the best. Recently I asked some of my girlfriends to share some of the fibs they tell their spouses. If somehow their husbands find this post, husbands, I need you to know that every "lie" was made out of love. In case you're interested, I did ask my husband what lies guys tell their wives: he said they don't tell any. He's lying, but whatever. If I can get him and some of my guy friends to come clean, a part two will definitely be in the works. For now, take a look at these 7 lies we ladies tell our spouses.

I'm not mad.

Stop asking me if I'm upset because I AM. I mean, isn't it written all over my face?

I don't care.

Very similar to "I'm not mad." I do care. In fact, if I brought it up I must definitely care. Once again, please see the look on my face and take note of my body language.

I've barely eaten all day.

I've been so busy I've hardly eaten anything today. Ok, let me correct that. I've barely eaten anything you'd approve of. How long is this "baby weight" excuse good for anyway?

I'm going on a diet.

It ends up being a lie, but when we say this we have every intention on starting a diet. Tomorrow.

For your Information

It was on sale!

You ask how much we paid for that, and our reply is always "it was on sale!" Because really, shouldn't the only important thing be that we got it for a great price. So great, we dare not reveal it!

The kids needed it.

We splurged on something for our babies. Out of necessity of course. Besides, how could you be opposed to my purchase when our precious children "needed it?"

I can wear these with everything.

Yes, those sky high stilettoes can be worn with everything, making them an investment and absolutely necessary.
