Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third. The application of the ideal of service in every Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

RC Centro's GREAT!

President's Message

Dear Centro Ladies,

The District PR and Membership Seminar leaves a significant mark in the hearts of every Rotarians when the speakers of Zone 7A delivered a very powerful message to the district. Numbers may not be as many as expected, but the appreciation for the venue and the food, the interaction between the speaker and the audience, and the applause from everyone were greatly valued by the host club.

But behind every happiness lies the grief of the loss of several Rotarians who I believe have been greatly loved by many. We may have to pass through this world in a very short lifetime, but the legacy we left behind will be deeply engraved by the hearts and the memory of those we leave behind.

So let me take this chance to appreciate each and every lady in this club, whose efforts are highly recognized to prove that RC Centro is a strong club. You are the priceless gift that needs to be cherished. A rare diamond in the heart of Santa Rosa. Thank you ladies. Continue to shine so the district may see the beauty in you!

Yours in Rotary,

World Class President

Delphi Penelope "Pen" Cuya

ROTARY CORNER

ROTARY STRUCTURE

OUR STRUCTURE

Rotary is made up of three parts: at the heart of Rotary are our clubs, that are supported by Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation.

Rotary clubs bring together dedicated individuals to exchange ideas, build relationships, and take action.

Rotary International supports Rotary clubs worldwide by coordinating global programs, campaigns, and initiatives.

The Rotary Foundation uses generous donations to fund projects by Rotarians and our partners in communities around the world. As a nonprofit, all of the Foundation's funding comes from voluntary contributions made by Rotarians and friends who share our vision of a better world.

Together, Rotary clubs, Rotary International, and The Rotary Foundation work to make lasting improvements in our communities and around the world.

ROTARY CORNER

OUR PARTNERS

When Rotary partners with other organizations, we multiply the impact made by either group on their own. We call this “the Rotary effect.” From local food banks to global humanitarian organizations, we work with a wide variety of partners, including:

- Aga Khan University
- Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
- Global FoodBanking Network
- Mercy Ships
- ShelterBox
- UNESCO-IHE
- UNICEF
- United Nations
- World Health Organization

OUR LEADERSHIP

What does it take to be a leader with Rotary? Integrity, expertise, and a commitment to service—all the qualities that make Rotary members extraordinary. We look for these qualities in all our leadership positions, including our elected President and Board of Directors, who lead Rotary International, our appointed Trustee Chair and Board of Trustees, who run The Rotary Foundation, and our General Secretary and executive staff, who provide long-term oversight of the organization. Members of each Rotary club elect their own leadership.

ROTARY'S REPRESENTATIVE NETWORK PUTS BOOKS INTO THE HANDS OF CHILDREN IN ECUADOR

Students in Ecuador read books they received through an international project sponsored by the Rotary clubs of Annapolis, Maryland, and Quito Occidente, Ecuador. The project is part of an ongoing collaboration between Rotary and the Organization of American States.

Schoolchildren in Ecuador are improving their reading, and their teachers are receiving additional professional development through a collaboration between Rotary and the Organization of American States (OAS).

The effort began three years ago when Richard Carson, RI representative to the OAS, and other Rotary members met with staff at the agency to discuss a set of literacy requirements for schools. They briefed the ministers of education of Central and South American countries on an approach to improve reading skills. Ecuador adopted the plan.

News & Updates

"We flew to Ecuador and met with the vice president of the country, who happened to be a Rotarian, and with many different teaching professionals," says Carson, a member of the Rotary Club of Bethesda-Chevy Chase, Maryland, USA. "It's a very successful project involving three Rotary districts and eight clubs."

To achieve the new academic standards, the program called for additional training for teachers, including how to incorporate new technology into the curriculum. Rachael Blair, who coordinated a global grant project for the Rotary Club of Annapolis, Maryland, USA, said she was moved by how much the teachers appreciated Rotary's involvement.

"They could not believe that Rotary clubs would take such an interest in their professional development, especially clubs from overseas," she says. "They reminded me that when you nurture and support others, they shine and bring their very best skills and talents to the table."

For the past three decades, a network of RI representatives has been strengthening ties with the United Nations, its agencies, and other international organizations, like the League of Arab States and the European Union. The result is bigger projects, like the one in Ecuador.

In Lebanon, Rotary clubs have partnered with the UN's Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia to teach high school students about the UN Millennium Development Goals, the progress Arab states have made toward reaching them, and the obstacles that remain. The aim is to better educate the younger generation on how they can help achieve the goals.

Michel Jazzar, a member of the Rotary Club of Kerousan, Lebanon, and an RI representative to the UN agency, has also been instrumental in bringing Lebanon clubs together to form a National Rotary Lebanon Fund to coordinate their efforts.

RI representatives monitor activities and advocate for Rotary's causes within most of the major international institutions. They regularly attend functions at the White House, United Nations, the Commonwealth, and European Union, and they arrange private meetings and organize special events.

Reflections

"In the pursuit of happiness, men most frequently turn to wealth; in it they hope to find enduring happiness. Some look for it in the possession of gold, King Midas' sad experience notwithstanding. They hoard it beyond all possible needs.

...If we heed the guide posts and danger signals which seers have hung out for the benefit of travelers on life's highway, we shall not look for happiness in the possession of money, nor in the possession of things which money will buy."

Paul P Harris message on the 30th anniversary of Rotary, 1935

"Friendship is a natural and willing servant.... There is no reason...why the great power of friendship should not be harnessed to do its part in the world's work." — Report of the President, 1912 Rotary Convention, Duluth, Minnesota, US
