Praise be to the Lord . We thank you for the ideal of service to others. May blessings rest upon our being together and upon all our efforts as we seek to serve. Broaden our shoulders and brace our backs for the caring of our responsibilities. Help us do them nobly, with dignity and integrity. This we ask in Jesus name. Amen.

Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third. The application of the ideal of service in every Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

RC Centro's GREAT!

President's Message

Dear Centro Ladies,

Thank you for your time in attending the District Christmas Party last Saturday. I hope you have enjoyed as much as I did.

This week comes our 2 simultaneous projects, the Pagoyo Daycare Christmas Party and our My Fair Centro Bazaar. Please find time to attend because we have invited other Rotarians from the district. It's much better for us to be seen on site. This is also the best chance to get to know the bazaaristas so we may establish good business relationships in our future bazaar projects.

Yours in Rotary,

World Class President
Delphi Penelope "Pen" Cuya

ROTARY CORNER

HISTORY OF ROTARY INTERNATIONAL

The first four Rotarians (from left): Gustavus Loehr, Silvester Schiele, Hiram Shorey, and Paul P. Harris, circa 1905-12.

Paul P. Harris, an attorney, wanted to create a professional group with the same friendly spirit he felt in the small towns of his youth. On 23 February 1905, Harris, Gustavus Loehr, Silvester Schiele, and Hiram Shorey gathered at Loehr's office in Room 711 of the Unity Building in downtown Chicago. This was the first Rotary club meeting. They decided to call the new club "Rotary" after the practice of rotating meeting locations.

Within five years clubs had formed across the country, from San Francisco to New York.

In August 1910, Rotarians held their first convention in Chicago. The 16 clubs that existed at that time united to form the National Association of Rotary Clubs.

In 1912, the name changed to International Association of Rotary Clubs to reflect the addition of clubs in other countries. The name Rotary International was adopted in 1922.

By July 1925, Rotary had grown to more than 2,000 clubs and an estimated 108,000 members on six continents.

Rotary's reputation attracted presidents, prime ministers, and a host of other luminaries to its ranks — among them author Thomas Mann, diplomat Carlos P. Romulo, and composer Jean Sibelius.

As Rotary grew, members pooled their resources and used their talents to serve their communities. The organization's dedication to this ideal is best expressed in its motto: Service Above Self.

ROTARY CORNER

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

In 1932, Rotarian Herbert J. Taylor created The Four-Way Test. The test, which has been translated into more than 100 languages, asks the following questions:

Of the things we think, say or do

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

CNBC RANKS ROTARY FOUNDATION IN TOP 10 CHARITIES WORLDWIDE

The Rotary Foundation. This not-for-profit organization works to advance world understanding, goodwill and peace. Using Rotary Foundation grants, Rotary's 34,000 clubs across the globe develop and carry out sustainable humanitarian projects and provide scholarships and professional training opportunities.

One of its biggest initiatives aims at eradicating polio through its PolioPlus program, launched in 1985. Since then, Rotary and its partners, including the World Health Organization and the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, have immunized more than 2.5 billion children, reducing the incidence of polio by 99 percent and eradicating it from all but three countries.

On Giving Tuesday, CNBC, one of the leading consumer and business news media outlets in the U.S., named its top 10 charities in the world, ranking The Rotary Foundation No. 5. Charities were chosen for changing the world while maintaining excellent financial standards. The article highlighted Rotary's tremendous work in eradicating polio.

Still, before giving to any charity — large or small — it's important to understand how much of your money actually goes to the cause being supported and how much is earmarked for administrative expenses. "For these larger charities, you want to see at least 75 percent of their budget going to programs and services," said Sandra Miniutti, vice president of marketing for Charity Navigator, a service that provides information about a charity's functions, finances and management. It, along with BBB Wise Giving Alliance and Charity Watch, are free to use, although others charge both the site user and the charity to be rated.

It's also important to note how a charity's revenue is trending over time. If there are consecutive years of decreases, that could be a red flag.

The following are some of the highest-rated charities, according to Charity Navigator. Their scores — ranked on a scale of 1 to 100 — are based on financial health, accountability and the transparency of reporting.

9 Things Only December Babies Will Understand

It's that time of the year again—sleigh bells are ringing, (fake) snow is glistening, and Jose Mari Chan is on repeat. 'Tis the season to be merry! Some people, however, have more reasons to be happy (or not). Here, nine things only December babies will understand.

1. Your birthday present is also your Christmas gift.

It's more expensive naman daw, says your tita. Sure.

2. Celebrating your birthday is hard.

Everyone is either on vacation or has already RSVP-ed to a Christmas party. In fact, the only way you can celebrate with all your friends is if you host the annual barkada Christmas party yourself.

3. And forget about eating out!

During this time of the year, almost all of the good places are already fully booked.

4. If you do get to reserve a table, all of your guests are bound to be late.

No one can escape Christmas carmaggedon.

For your Information

6. Wala kang pera.

Because you're playing Santa, just like everyone else.

7. It's not your special day.

Never ka magiging bida because Jesus is.

8. But all that hardly matters because you're reminded of what's really important.

And that's the fact that you share the same birth month as Britney Spears, Taylor Swift, Lucy Liu, Amanda Seyfried, Julianne Moore, Mary, Queen of Scots, Sara Bareilles—all amazing women in their own right.

9. Okay, kidding aside, being a December baby is awesome!

There is kindness and goodness around you. Seeing all that makes you even more grateful for what you have—friends, family, freedom, love. ~~Merry Christmas!~~ Happy Birthday, December baby!

Reflections

“When an individual, a sect, a clique or a nation hates and despises another individual, sect, clique or nation, he or they simply do not know the objects of their hatred. Ignorance is at the bottom of it.”

Paul P. Harris

“We are all Rotarians. There is only one family of us....Kipling said, ‘East is East and West is West, and ne’er the twain shall meet.’ We do not recognize that in Rotary. We realize that Kipling spoke the truth when at the end of that poem he said: For there is neither East nor West, Border, nor breed, nor birth, When two strong men stand face to face, Though they come from the ends of the earth. — Address to 1931 Rotary Convention, Vienna, Austria
