Thank you for our Rotary meeting. We invoke your blessings on this meeting and all who grace it with their presence and unselfishly impart their knowledge to us . Lord, help us to be gentle with ourselves and one another, not expecting more than we can, nor they can produce. Be with us this day and always by strengthening our belief in the ultimate triumph of truth and right. This prayer we make in the name of the way of truthful living. Amen

Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third. The application of the ideal of service in every Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

RC Centro's GREAT!

President's Message

Dear Centro Ladies,

It's been a trend on the WCP's facebook page to update our profile pictures with a caption, "I'm a proud member" together with a Rotary logo. The people have been starting to ask "What is Rotary?".

In order to increase our membership, I also encourage everyone in our club to do so. That was the very same question I asked my sponsor, PP Hazel before. I have learned to love this organization's advocacy to help the community, and I have stayed because of the friendships I gained in you.

RI President Ravi have urged us to strengthen the value of our membership, recruiting younger generations. Our Rotaractors are our great potential. Let us nurture them, so they can be effective future leaders continuing our legacy. I am positive that we can make this happen through the help of each and everyone.

Let us multiply the great deeds and be a proud member of our club!

Thank you.

Yours in Rotary,

World Class President

ROTARY CORNER

BE A VIBRANT CLUB YOUR CLUB LEADERSHIP PLAN

Hold club assemblies regularly to keep members engaged and knowledgeable.

Club assemblies help all members feel connected. When all members have the opportunity to voice their ideas about club goals and activities, your club can maximise its collective expertise to address a local need. Many clubs use assemblies as a chance to inspire their members and fuel their shared passion to make a difference. An environment such as a club assembly that welcomes diverse perspectives is the perfect place to channel enthusiasm into action.

Ideas to try

- Exchange club presidents with a nearby club for a meeting. After the exchange, schedule an assembly to talk about the experiences of the president and members.
- Designate time in an assembly for new members to share their first impressions of the club and for members to share new ideas.
- Once a month, include a 10-minute open forum at the end of a club meeting and encourage members to present new ideas or a topic for discussion.

Communicate openly in your club.

Communication should go two ways in your club. Club leaders should be transparent in communications with members, and members should feel free to communicate openly with club leaders. Your communication plan should include relaying information at club meetings, on your club website, and through social media.

Ideas to try

- Frequently update your club website and social media accounts; separate members-only information from information intended for the public.
- Pair Internet-savvy members with those who are less experienced to help them navigate the website and social media.
- Share information with members and check in regularly to see how members are feeling.

ROTARY CORNER

5 Prepare members for future roles to maintain a smooth leadership transition.

Annual leadership changes provide opportunities for members to take on new roles. It is helpful for members to understand the leadership roles and get involved early in the transition process. There are many ways to achieve continuity, including making appointments for multiple years; having a current, incoming, and past chair on each committee; and having the current club president work closely with the president-elect, president-nominee, and immediate past president. Thinking ahead will help ensure that there are enough volunteers to fill new leadership positions each year.

Ideas to try

- Have club leaders find their own successors during their terms of service. They are the most familiar with what the job requires and who would succeed in that role.
- Learn more about members' talents and interests, and assign them to roles they would enjoy and excel in.
- Conduct on-the-job training for incoming club officers at least one month before they take office.

6 Adapt your club's bylaws to support the way your club works.

As your club evolves, so should your bylaws. The Recommended Rotary Club Bylaws are a starting point for outlining your club's practices. Consider the recommended bylaws as a template that your club can edit and revise to reflect new practices and procedures.

Ideas to try

- Check that your club is using the latest version of the Recommended Rotary Club Bylaws.
- Put your club's bylaws on your club website or distribute them at club assemblies so members can offer suggestions.
- Review them once a year as a club and share them with new members.
- Consider running pilot tests of new club procedures to see if they work before amending your bylaws.

Reflections

"In the pursuit of happiness, men most frequently turn to wealth; in it they hope to find enduring happiness. Some look for it in the possession of gold, King Midas' sad experience notwithstanding. They hoard it beyond all possible needs.

Others expect to find it in the things which money can bring them: influence, power, business, and social prestige, the envy of those who are less opulent, and endless, interminable things.

...If we heed the guide posts and danger signals which seers have hung out for the benefit of travelers on life's highway, we shall not look for happiness in the possession of money, nor in the possession of things which money will buy."

Paul P Harris

"There is nothing intangible about Rotary: It is reality itself. To give is to receive; to lose oneself is to find oneself; to be happy is to serve. These are old truths...for the individual...and the mass, whether application be in the exchange of goods, toil, knowledge, or love." — The Meaning of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, November 1921

For your Information

Philippines population hits 101.6 M this year

The country's population is projected to reach 101.6 million this year, according to the Philippine Statistics Authority.

PSA interim assistant national statistician Socorro Abejo made the projection at the official start of Population Census 2015 (PopCen 2015), which runs until Sept. 6.

The PSA, a line agency of the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA), is considered an expanded National Statistics Coordinating Board (NSCB).

The 101.6 million forecast is roughly 10 percent higher than the 2010 official count. The annual growth rate is 2.1 percent, slightly slower than the 2.42 percent rate from 1990 to 1995.

A census in 1903 – the first under the US colonial era – showed the country's population at 7.6 million.

The 13th census undertaken in 2010 showed the official population count at 92.3 million.

A total of 93,000 enumerators or interviewers have been sent out to collect data from 42,028 barangays nationwide. The target is one interviewer for every 300 to 400 households.
