When it began
I can't believe it happened
But then I know it's going strong 2001
That's when it came to being Who'd have believed we'll grow to be...

*Hands, touching hands
*Reaching out, touching me,
*touching you
*Sweet Rotary
*Sta. Rosa Centro's good
*I've been inclined
*To believe we're going strong
*And now, I...

Look all around
So many help is needed
C'mon, together I know we could
And when we hurt,
We can just smile and bear it
'Coz we were born
to serve and be....

Warm, touching warm
Reaching out, touching me,
touching you
*Sweet Rotary
*Sta. Rosa Centro's good
*We're going strong
*We are here for all of you
And now, I...

President's Message

Happy New Year, Centro ladies!

"Each New Year, we have before us a brand new book containing 365 blank pages. Let us fill them with all the forgotten things from last year — the words we forgot to say, the love we forgot to show, and the charity we forgot to offer."

Drawing inspiration from Peggy Toney Horton, I would like us all to be reminded what the New Year brings – new opportunities. It is God's way of giving us another chance to make things right, as it should be, and start to offer ourselves in His service. While we may not be fulltime servants of the Church, I believe that being in service to our fellows also translates to serving the Creator.

On this note, I would like us all to continue what we do best – giving "Service Above Self" – and fill the 365 pages of the Rotary Club of Sta. Rosa Centro for year 2015 with more good things and better projects. We did it last year, so I am positive that we can do it better this year.

Once again, Happy New Year to everyone and God bless!

Yours in Rotary,

Best Class President Arlene "Mayor" Arcillas

ROTARY'S INNOVATIVE TRIBUTE TO POLIO ERADICATION IN INDIA BREAKS GUINNESS WORLD RECORD

To eradicate polio in India, Rotary members displayed impressive coordination and commitment. So it should come as no surprise that Rotary members in Chennai, Tamil Nadu, were able to mobilize more than 40,000 people to create the world's largest human national flag. The tribute to the polio eradication effort qualified as a Guinness World Records-breaking achievement.

News & Updates

"What impressed me most was that all of Rotary was represented: Rotaractors, Interactors, and Rotarians," says RI President Gary C.K. Huang, who participated in the event along with his wife, Corinna, and other Rotary senior leaders. "They brought their classmates, friends, and co-workers. I think that says a lot about how important it is to the people that India is polio free."

Participants from all walks of life holding placards stood together on a local fairgrounds to form the Indian flag. Their display broke the record set last year by the Sports Club of Lahore, which organized nearly 30,000 people to form the Pakistani flag.

After breaking the record, local Rotary members, who'd formed the blue wheel in the center of the flag, flipped their placards over to create Rotary wheels, and other Rotary members unfurled a large banner reading "Keep India Polio Free." The organizers, led by District 3230, estimate that another 50,000 people showed up to watch on large TV screens set up outside the event.

Once the participants were organized, they had to hold up the placards for more than five minutes to enable the representative from Guinness to verify the new record. "The last 30 seconds, everyone started screaming [in encouragement]," says Huang. "I [felt] very patriotic, says Avanthika Iyer, a third-year student at Shasun Jain College in Chennai. "The five-minute period of holding the placard was difficult but made us happy."

Says Huang: "When I was told how many people had to participate -- 40,000 to 50,000 -- I didn't think it would happen. When I saw the thousands and thousands of people [gathered] for just the rehearsal the day before, I realized it was possible."

Weigh-in

Reflections

"Deeds preceded the written word. After service had been rendered in manifold forms, the word "Service" with all its varied meanings and implications, was written in the Rotary plan."

(Paul, Harris This Rotarian Age, page 89)

"Every Rotary club should be made a forum before which vital economic and social problems may be fairly and intelligently discussed. Club programs should stimulate thought, widen the horizon, and deepen conviction." — The Program for the Year, THE ROTARIAN, August 1920

Overrated Tourist Attractions Around The World – And Where To Go Instead

Instead of seeing New York City from the top of the Empire State Building, go to Top of the Rock. Waiting to get to the top of the Empire State Building is a pain. It's expensive, there are long lines, and the views of New York City are only so-so.

The Pyramid Fields of Dahshur are spectacular. The Great Pyramids of Giza may be the most well-known pyramids in the world, but that doesn't mean they're the best. In fact, they can be so overrun with tourists and the views from them are so marred by modern Cairo that many travelers say they're not even worth visiting.

For your Information

Instead of walking around Stonehenge with all the tourists, go out of your way to see the Callanish Standing Stones. The Callanish Standing Stones are breathtaking. Stonehenge has long been described as a tourist must-see, but the endless crowds and designated walkway can make it seem less than extraordinary.

Instead of battling crowds ogling the Mona Lisa at the Louvre in Paris, see the impressionist works at the Musée d'Orsay. The Musée d'Orsay is one of the most gorgeous buildings in Paris. The Louvre is spectacular yet overwhelming, and the same can be said for Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa. The famous but tiny work of art is constantly surrounded by tourists trying to snap a picture.

Avoid Times Square at all costs. While most tourists come to New York City and head directly for Times Square, it's incredibly disappointing. Times Square is dirty, crowded, expensive, and overwhelming — walk through it once and you'll never want to go back.
