Mahirap maging tatay!

Mahirap maging tatay! I should know, because as a solo parent I am both tatay and nanay to my kids. So I am a "natay". Being a mom for me is a breeze compared to being a dad, and so when I need to be a tatay I have my "resource persons", or male friends and relatives whom I ask -- paano ba ito?

I remember when my son Brian was into his teens. He texted me to buy him a razor. I said to myself, "aba, magse-shave na ang anak ko". When I was at the grocery store, however, I was faced with a whole shelf full of razors, and I didn't know which one to get.

Me (texting Resource Person): Hi! Ano bang brand ang magandang pang-shave? Nagpapabili si Brian eh.

RP (texting back): Bakit di mo sya kaya tanungin?

Me (texting impatiently): First time nya mag-shave so di pa nya alam.

Then to my surprise, my friend calls me.

RP: First time nya mag-shave?

Me: Yes, why??

RP: Naku, that is a ritual... Wag kang bumili ng disposable... dapat yung old style shaver, yung nilalagyan ng blade... alam mo ba yun?

Me: Alin, yung may handle pa na iniikot? Ganun yung sa tatay ko. Eh saan naman ako bibili nun?

RP: Sa mga palengke or sa Hortaleza siguro...

Me: Ha? Saan naman ako hahanap ng Hortaleza?

RP: Basta, maghanap ka nun. Ritual yan that every man should undergo.

After that I didn't know what to do. The tatay in me wanted my son to undergo that manhood ritual to have his first shave using that old shaver; but the nanay in me had a request from her kid and wanted to deliver that request right away. Then there was also the real me who was really too busy to go look for that thing, and the directionally-challenged me who wouldn't know how to go there.

It was a hard decision, but the nanay won, and so I grabbed the first shaver I could reach (it promised the best shave ever), paid for it, went home, and put it in my son's room.

INVOCATION

President's Message

Dear Centro ladies,

Time really flies! It's only 9 days left before I end my term. And in 4 days, I will be handing over the presidency to PE Doray. And this will be my last message as president of RC Sta. Rosa Centro. It is indeed a good and fruitful Rotary year 2012-13. It will not be possible without the dedicated members of our club. And I thank you all for the invaluable support and contribution to our club.

But our work as Rotarians does not end. There are always people in need; and we have the commitment to serve our less fortunate brothers and sisters to make this world a better place. Let us continue to engage Rotary to change lives.

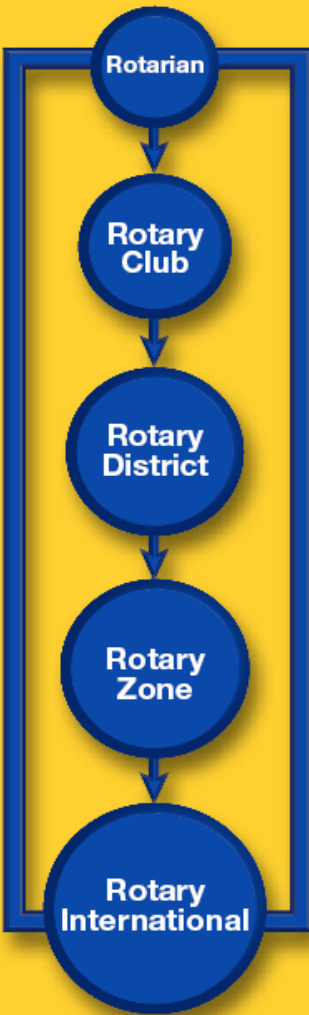

Yours in Rotary Service,

Pb Pres. Liza

LET US INTRODUCE YOU TO

ROTARY BASICS

We're a GRASSROOTS organization. We carry out our most meaningful service work through our Rotary clubs. Each club elects its own officers and enjoys considerable autonomy within the framework of Rotary's constitution and bylaws. Rotary districts (groups of clubs) support these efforts and are led by district governors. Rotary clubs belong to the global association Rotary International, led by the RI president and the RI Board of Directors.

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL Updates

The Rotary Foundation
Trustee Chair
Wilfrid J. Wilkinson

As I write this message for the month of June, I find myself happy and a little bit sad. I'm happy because during my 50 years in Rotary, I have been privileged to see how much good my Rotarian friends have done in this world.

I've been able to witness the smiling faces of schoolchildren who have desks, blackboards, books, running water, playgrounds, and youth clubs, all of which were organized, funded, and maintained by Rotarians. I've put drops of polio vaccine into the mouths of children in many countries as we have worked to eradicate polio.

I've been pleased to speak with popes, patriarchs, and clerics of virtually every religion, all of whom have told me of the good work of Rotarians. These messages were echoed in the remarks of kings, presidents, prime ministers, and ambassadors as I've traveled the world on behalf of Rotary.

As I step down as chair of our Rotary Foundation, I am eager for the worldwide launch of the Future Vision Plan – a plan that, when fully implemented, will have our Foundation singled out as a model for sustainable projects benefiting millions of people in years to come.

When I was your president, I told you that Rotary Shares. As your Foundation chair, I can only emphasize that statement. It is our desire and willingness to share that has made the theme chosen by RI President Sakuji Tanaka, Peace Through Service, so significant and poignant. And in the year to come, I wholly endorse the theme that President-elect Ron Burton has chosen – that those who Engage Rotary will Change Lives, including their own.

I welcome my successor, Past RI President Dong Kurn Lee, and wish him and his Board of Trustees the very best as they pursue the objective of our Foundation – to do good in the world.

I hope you will join me, and your fellow Rotarians, as we celebrate this year of Peace Through Service together.

2013 DISTASS : A Fun Learning Experience

by: Rtn. Myrna Valle

After a very successful District Conference held in Subic, the Rotary Club of Sta. Rosa Centro had an even stronger representation to the District Assembly for Rotary Year 2013-2014 held last May 18-19 at Lima Hotel in Batangas with an 11-member attendance.

Rotarians from all over District 3820 flocked to the Main Hall of the hotel, welcomed by a huge tarpaulin with a photo of a smiling District Governor-Elect Danny Ona garbed in naval attire and executing a snappy salute. At about 2:30 p.m., the Parade of Dignitaries started, wherein our very own President Elect Doray Lucero carried our banner.

After a colourful dance number, DG Dennis Sunio called the District Assembly to order. Soon after, all the District 3820 clubs were acknowledged; each announcement highlighted by cheers, hoots, and whistles from the animated crowd. Not to be outdone, our club cheered at the top of our voices (and helped by friends from other clubs as well), and as a result, we won the "Best Cheer" award, as announced by the host club.

DGE Ona presented the Rotary International theme as well as the thrusts and goals of District 3820 in the coming RY 2013-14, serving as a guide for all clubs to follow in their respective plans and programs for the coming year.

To the crowd's delight, the special guest speaker was again Dr. Siva Ananthan, who also graced last year's DISTASS. Dr. Siva once again regaled us with his anecdotes that sent everyone in stitches. Like last year, his talk gave us a wealth of knowledge and lessons on how we could better enrich our lives as Rotarians.

That night's Fellowship was something different because everyone was dressed in white pants and the 2013 Distass shirt, which are the requirements to be able to win in the raffle. Another requirement was that one should be dancing to be able to claim his/her prize. The latter requirement is enough encouragement for the Centro ladies to join the line dance for hours!

The following day, after the Call to Order by DGE Ona, an inspirational lecture on "How to have a positive outlook in life" was delivered by Mr. Jojo Recio. Then it was time for the break-out sessions held in different function rooms of the hotel. RC Sta. Rosa Centro participants went their separate ways to attend the sessions, meeting again for lunch at the Main Hall.

After lunch, DGE Ona delivered his Incoming Governor's Message, followed by the Business Meeting to approve several proposals, one of which is the construction of a Governor's Office in Batangas which will necessitate an increase in the Governor's Fund.

The hosts held the highlight of the event till the very end, which is the raffle of the grand prize, a cruise trip for two at the Royal Caribbean cruise ship. After the announcement of the lucky winner from Batangas, the Rotarians from District 3820 bid each other good-bye, and till the next District event!

For your Information

Chicken in 5 ways

Chicken is a beloved—and very versatile—meat. It can be served crunchy, grilled, swimming in sauce, spicy, sour, in a soup, etc. Your choices are almost limitless. Here, we show you at least ten ways to enjoy chicken. Cheers to hearty chicken meals!

Fried Chicken

Prepare the marinade composed of calamansi juice, garlic, salt, and pepper. Leave chicken in the mixture for an hour. Assemble your fried chicken coating, using one dish for each of these: flour, beaten egg, and breadcrumbs. Coat each chicken piece one at a time with flour, then egg, then breadcrumbs. Fry until the coating is golden brown.

Chicken Curry

Saute garlic, onion, and ginger. Add chicken until slightly brown. Add water and potatoes, bring to a boil. Simmer until chicken is tender. Add curry powder and red bell peppers. Add coconut milk and season as desired.

Chicken Tocino

For a delicious and healthy breakfast, you can use boneless chicken parts for this recipe. Mix garlic, brown sugar, pineapple juice, soy sauce, salt, and pepper for the marinade. Leave chicken in the mixture for at least 1 hour. Then you can either fry or bake the chicken pieces until tender.

Chicken Inasal

Grind together garlic, ginger, lemongrass, yellow ginger, salt, pepper, and annatto powder. Rub the paste all over the chicken pieces. Put the chicken in one layer in a big container and pour just enough vinegar to cover all the pieces. Marinate for 3 hours. Grill over hot coals.

Chicken Barbecue

This picnic favorite is best prepared the night before a gathering. For at least an hour, marinate chicken pieces in soy sauce, calamansi juice, garlic, onions, sprite or 7-up, sugar, and pepper. Grill over hot coals.
